Chapter 1 by Justine Adamson

The little girl ran as fast as she could through the wooded common. She was slightly chubby and wasn't a very fast runner and so the gang of kids chasing her into unknown territory kept up easily, pushing her along and trying to make her fall down rabbit holes. The little girl ran and ran as hard as she could until she came to an 8 foot cyclone fence, the torturous group were walking along behind a bit, taunting and teasing the terrified child. The little girl kept running along the fence until she came to a hole which she was able to fit through.
